kevin McClatchy

CEO & Managing General Partner

Kevin McClatchy was named Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Pittsburgh Pirates when the ownership group he formed purchased the franchise on February 14, 1996.

Despite the efforts of other potential buyers to move the Pirates elsewhere, the youngest owner in baseball was determined to keep the team in Pittsburgh. Maintaining a combination of tenacity and ingenuity throughout a grueling nine-month effort, McClatchy organized a group of civic-minded individuals and local corporations to save the franchise.

McClatchy will be long remembered for bringing the greatest ballpark in America to the city of Pittsburgh. On August 6, 1998, PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park and on March 31, 2001, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark became a reality as the Pirates hosted the New York Mets in the first-ever game played at PNC Park.

Construction on the 38,000-seat venue began in April of 1999 on the land adjacent to the Roberto Clemente Bridge (6th Street) along the North Shore of the Allegheny River. On January 10, 2001, Paul Beeston, the Chief Operating Officer of Major League Baseball, proclaimed PNC Park as the "best-looking baseball stadium he had ever seen." The park has received many other glowing reviews from national and local media during its first four seasons of play, including the #1 ranking of all ballparks by ESPN.com during the summer of 2003. The park has also served as a backdrop for ESPN's 25th Anniversary Show in 2004 and for the NBC Nightly News in January of 2005.

In just his second year as the club's principal owner, the Pirates went from a last-place finish in 1996 to being the talk of baseball in 1997. Prior to the '97 campaign, Baseball America - considered the premier publication on minor league baseball - rated the Pirates' farm system as "the best in baseball" and USA Today newspaper named the Pirates as its "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. In December of 1997, USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Pirates' success in 1997 as one of the top five baseball stories of the year.

McClatchy was honored by the Anti-Defamation League as its Man-of-the-Year, receiving the American Heritage Award at a ceremony in January of 2001. He was also named by Vectors/Pittsburgh as its Man-of-the-Year for 1999 and was honored by The Post-Gazette for his leadership role in assuring the Pirates' continued presence in Pittsburgh into the new century at the annual Dapper Dan dinner in February of 2000. For his commitment to keeping the club in Pittsburgh and stressing the importance of a new baseball-only venue, in addition to making over 100 speaking engagements in the tri-state area, In Pittsburgh news weekly named McClatchy its "Person-of-the-Year" in 1997.

Before becoming the fifth owner of the 117-year-old organization, Kevin had served as National Sales Manager for the Newspaper Network; a subsidiary of McClatchy Newspapers. The McClatchy family, which founded The Sacramento Bee newspaper in 1857, has more than 20 different newspapers in 10 states nationwide.

McClatchy's professional career began at WPLG-TV, the ABC affiliate in Miami, where he served as a sports producer. He later joined Knight-Ridder Newspapers and spent four years in the national advertising and marketing department at The Miami Herald. In 1990, Kevin returned to California, where he ran the daily business operations for The Amador Ledger-Dispatch and continued to work in the advertising and marketing departments for McClatchy Newspapers.

dave littlefield

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Dave Littlefield was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on July 13, 2001, thus becoming the 11th G.M. in the history of the club.

In his four and a half seasons as the General Manager, Littlefield has continued to build the Pirates with a core of younger players which includes the 2004 National League Rookie-of-the-Year Jason Bay and left-handed pitcher Oliver Perez, having acquired both players in a trade for Brian Giles during the 2003 season.

In his first full season with the Pirates, the major league club showed a 10-game improvement from the 2001 campaign and Pittsburgh's minor league clubs combined to win 399 games and produce the second-winningest farm system among all major league teams. For his efforts and the efforts of his staff, the Pirates were named the 2002 Organization-of-the-Year by Topps.

Prior to the 2003 campaign, Littlefield acquired free agents Reggie Sanders, Matt Stairs, Jeff Suppan, Kenny Lofton, Julian Tavarez and Jeff D'Amico. The major league club once again improved from the previous season, winning 75 games and ranking third in the league with a .267 batting average.

Before joining the Pirates, Littlefield served the Florida Marlins as a Vice President and Assistant to General Manager Dave Dombrowski, a position he held since March 6, 2000. With the Marlins, he assisted the GM in all aspects of baseball operations and was in charge of the club's scouting efforts in the Far East. In addition, he supervised the construction of the Marlins new baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

Dave was named the Marlins Assistant General Manager on November 6, 1998, after spending parts of three seasons as the Director of Player Development for the Montreal Expos. Littlefield joined the Expos scouting department in November of 1991 as a National Crosschecker and East Coast Supervisor. He also spent three years in the Detroit Tigers organization as an area scout and East Coast Scouting Supervisor.

Prior to his major league baseball career, Dave served as an Assistant Baseball Coach for three seasons at the University of Massachusetts, followed by three seasons in the same capacity at Clemson University. He earned a bachelor's degree in Marketing and a master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts. In addition, Dave earned a Varsity letter in 1981 while playing linebacker for the UMass football team.

A graduate of Portland (ME) High School, Littlefield was signed as a free agent catcher by the Philadelphia Phillies and spent three years playing in the Phillies and Yankees farm systems.

PERSONAL: David M. Littlefield...Born on 6/16/60 in Portland, ME...Wife's name is Joanna...Two children; daughter Andrea (11/4/96) and son Derrick (5/16/98)...His brother Scott is the East Coast Crosschecker for the San Diego Padres and his brother Mark is the Head Athletic Trainer for the New York Yankees minor league system...His uncle, Dick Capp, attended Boston College and played one season as an end with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1968).

jack bowen

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Jack Bowen joined Dave Littlefield's staff in February of 2005 after spending the past eight years within the scouting department of the New York Mets.

Bowen was most recently named a Special Assignment Scout with the Mets after serving the club as its Director of Scouting since October of 2001. During his tenure as Scouting Director he spearheaded three amateur drafts, which included the selection of left-handed pitcher Scott Kazmir in the 1st round of the 2002 draft.

Jack actually began his scouting career with the Pirates in 1985 as a Scouting Supervisor under the guidance of Scouting Director Elmer Gray. After working in that capacity through the 1990 season, Bowen joined the Cincinnati Reds as their Regional Crosschecker in January of 1991. He also spent four years (1994-1997) as the Northern Crosschecker for the San Francisco Giants before joining the New York organization as a National Crosschecker in November of '97. Jack held that position until the Mets named him their Assistant Scouting Director in 2000.

A 1977 graduate of Mt. Lebanon High School, Bowen also attended West Virginia University and the University of Pittsburgh.

PERSONAL: Jack was born on 7/12/59 in Clarksburg, WV...He and his wife Linda reside in Bethel Park, PA, with their three children; sons Tyler (14) and Chris (13) and daughter Haley (8)...His grandfather Rex was the Pirates Scouting Director from 1959 to 1967 and was responsible for signing Hall-of-Famer Bill Mazeroski, 1960 National League MVP Dick Groat and 1962 MVP Maury Wills...His uncle Joe was also a scout with the Pirates in the 50's and 60's.

louie eljaua

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Louie Eljaua (pronounced "EL hawa") is in his second season with the Pirates, having been named a Special Assistant to General Manager Dave Littlefield on January 5, 2004.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Eljaua worked with the Boston Red Sox as their Director of International Scouting for two seasons (2002-2003). During that time, he oversaw the construction of the Dominican Academy, a $3 million complex which will serve as a year-round training facility in El Toro, Dominican Republic. The Red Sox are now one of four major league teams to own and operate such a facility (also Los Angeles, Oakland and Anaheim).

Before working with the Red Sox, Eljaua spent nine years with the Florida Marlins, beginning as an area scout in 1992. He was also involved in Latin American scouting while working with the Marlins. Louie left the Florida organization in 1998 and served the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout for one year. He rejoined the Marlins staff in 1999 as their Director of Latin America scouting. In his tenure, Eljaua was responsible for signing 2004 All-Stars Orlando Cabrera and Livan Hernandez.

Eljaua was a four-year letterman while playing baseball at Monsignor Pace High School in Miami, FL, winning state championships his sophomore and senior seasons. He worked as a graduate assistant coach for St. Thomas University (FL) in 1991 prior to joining the Florida organization on a full-time basis.

PERSONAL: Louie was born on 6/9/69 in Miami, FL...He is single and resides in Miami.

jesse flores

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Jesse Flores was added to Dave Littlefield's staff on November 27, 2001.

Flores, who worked for the Pirates as their Northern California scout for three years (1990-92), spent the previous two seasons as the National Crosschecker and the West Coast Scouting Supervisor for the Cleveland Indians. He joined the Cleveland organization in 1993 and served as the West Coast Scouting Supervisor for six years.

After signing with Toronto in 1978, the former right-handed pitcher spent four years playing minor league baseball, advancing as high as the Double-A level. After retiring as a player, he spent one year as the Pitching Coach with Sacramento State University and one season in the same capacity with Sacramento City College before joining the California Angels scouting department in 1984.

PERSONAL: Jesse was born on 10/5/55 in Sacramento, CA...He and his wife Doris reside in Sacramento with their four children; daughters Amy (20), Katy (18) and Melissa (13) and son Jay (15).

jax robertson

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Jax Robertson joined the Pittsburgh organization as a special assistant to General Manager Dave Littlefield on January 22, 2002.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Robertson spent two years working as a professional scout with the Florida Marlins. He also worked for the Marlins as their national crosschecker for eight years (1992-1999).

Before joining Florida's scouting staff, Robertson served the Detroit Tigers as their Director of Scouting for four years (1988-1991). He joined the Detroit organization in 1982 and assumed various roles within the scouting department prior to being named Director.

A catcher during his playing days, Robertson signed a professional contract with the Cubs in 1974 and spent one season in their minor league system. After receiving a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, he joined the New York Yankees scouting staff and was responsible for signing Don Mattingly after the club selected him in the 19th round of the 1979 free agent draft. Robertson worked with New York for four years (1977-1980) and then served Old Dominion University as an assistant baseball coach before joining Detroit.

PERSONAL: Jax was born on 3/4/52 in Milwaukee, WI...He and his wife Cindy reside in Cary, NC...The couple has two children: son Matt (23) and daughter Lindsay (17)...Was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scout Association (MASA) Hall-of-Fame during the 2004 season.

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Pete Vuckovich returned to the front office in 2001 after spending four seasons as the Pirates Pitching Coach at the major league level. He served the club as Assistant General Manager and Director of Player Personnel during the 1996 campaign.

Vuckovich's association with the Bucs began in 1992. He served the club as its minor league pitching coordinator for two seasons and was a special assistant to former General Manager Cam Bonifay in 1994 and 1995.

The Johnstown, PA, native pitched 11 seasons in the major leagues after being selected by the Chicago White Sox in the third round of the 1974 June free agent draft. He made his major league debut with the ChiSox on 8/3/75 and spent the entire 1976 season with Chicago before being selected by Toronto in the American League expansion draft on 11/5/76.

In 286 major league games, Pete compiled a 93-69 record and a 3.66 ERA. The highlight of his career came in 1982 when he went 18-6 for Milwaukee, won the A.L. Cy Young Award and helped the Brewers earn a World Series berth against St. Louis. Arm problems forced him to retire prior to the 1987 season.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Vuke worked as a color commentator for Brewers baseball with WCGV-TV for three seasons (1989-1991).

PERSONAL: Pete was born on 10/27/52 in Johnstown, PA...He and his wife Anna reside in Johnstown and have three sons: Lazo (27), Pete Jr. (24) and Damian (22)...Is a graduate of Conemaugh Valley (PA) High School, where he was a three-sport star in baseball, basketball and football...Also played baseball at Clarion (PA) State College and was an all-conference performer for three years and was twice named team MVP and NAIA All-American in 1974...Starred as Yankees first baseman, Clu Heyward, in the motion picture Major League.

Lloyd McClendon

AGE: 46

BORN: 1/11/59 in Gary, IN

RESIDES: Merrillville, IN

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher/Outfielder

HEIGHT: 6-0

WEIGHT: 215

CONTRACT: Signed thru 2005 (club option for 2006)

Lloyd McClendon was named the 35th manager in the history of the Pirates on October 23, 2000. In his four seasons with the club, he has guided the Pirates to a 281-365 record (.435 winning percentage). He enters the 2005 season ranked 11th on the club's all-time managerial win list, 14 behind Gene Lamont (10th with 295 victories) and 36 behind Billy Meyer (9th with 317).

In 2004, Lloyd's club took a 23-24 record into the month of June, only to go 9-19 that month and slip 16 games under .500 on June 25. He guided the team to 10 consecutive victories from June 26 thru July 5, the longest winning streak for the Pirates since winning 11 in a row in 1996. After posting a 17-10 record during the month of July and pulling within three games of .500 on August 19 (58-61), the Pirates went 14-28 in their final 42 games to finish with a losing record for the 12th straight season.

McClendon's 75 victories in 2003 were three more than the previous season and 13 more than his first season at the helm. Only three other major league teams increased its win total in those three years (also Baltimore, Boston and San Francisco).

"Mac" had the Pirates in first place for each of the first 11 days of the 2003 season, but spent most of the year in fourth place and finished 13 games behind the front-running Chicago Cubs. Despite making many trades after the All-Star break, the '03 squad went 50-48 in its final 98 games (beginning on 6/14). McClendon won his 200th career game as a manager on 9/10/03, one of only 13 skippers in club history to win 200 or more games.

The highlight of the 2003 season came when Lloyd served as a coach for Manager Dusty Baker at the All-Star Game in Chicago (AL). He and Tony La Russa assisted Baker on the bench during the National League's 7-6 loss to the American League. Prior to the Mid-Summer Classic, Lloyd was given a contract extension thru the 2004 campaign (with a club option for 2005).

The Pirates went 72-89 in 2002, a 10-game improvement from the 2001 campaign (one of only six major league teams to improve by 10 or more games). The 2002 Pirates began the season with a 12-5 record and were in 1st place for 19 days during the month of April. They also finished the year on a positive note, recording a 17-16 record over the final 33 games to finish in 4th place. During the year, McClendon picked up career win #100 on July 5; a 4-3 victory over the Astros @PNC Park.

In 2001, Lloyd led a club decimated by injuries to a 62-100 record and a sixth-place finish in the N.L. Central Division. All told, the Pirates lost a total of 19 players to injury during the 2001 season, totaling 1,275 games lost. McClendon's first big-league win came on April 4, 2001; a 6-5, come-from-behind victory @Cincinnati. The Pirates split their first eight games in 2001, but would never again return to the .500 level.

Prior to being named manager, McClendon spent four seasons (1997-2000) working as the Pirates major league hitting coach under manager Gene Lamont. He also served the organization as its minor league hitting coordinator in 1996. His previous managerial resume included a California League championship after guiding the Lancaster Stealth to a 26-16 regular season record and the top mark in the 1999 Fall League. In addition, "Mac" managed the Peoria Javelinas in the Arizona Fall League in 2000, but resigned from that duty on November 1, one week after being named manager of the Pirates.

Lloyd spent parts of eight seasons in the major leagues; playing the last four years of his big league career with the Pirates. In 570 major league games, he compiled a .244 batting average, 35 home runs and 154 RBI. He batted .251 with 17 homers and 77 RBI in 312 games with the Bucs.

Originally selected by the New York Mets in the eighth round of the 1980 June free agent draft, McClendon made his professional debut with Kingsport in the Appalachian League that summer. He was traded to Cincinnati on 12/16/82, along with pitcher Charlie Puleo and outfielder Jason Felice, in exchange for pitcher Tom Seaver. In 1986, his second full season at the Triple-A level, Lloyd led the American Association with 24 home runs and was named to the league's post-season All-Star team. He made his major league debut with the Reds the following season against Montreal on 4/6.

After spending two seasons in the Cubs organization, "Mac" was claimed off waivers by the Pirates on 9/7/90. After four seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform, he was granted free agency and signed a minor league contract with Cleveland on 5/14/95. Lloyd retired as a player after appearing in 37 games with Buffalo (AAA) in 1995.

During his big-league career, McClendon appeared in the League Championship Series with the Cubs (1989) and Pirates (1991-92) and compiled a .625 average (10-for-16) in 11 games. He homered off Atlanta's Marvin Freeman in Game Six of the 1992 L.C.S. and shares the Series record for most hits in one inning (2-10/13/92, 2nd inning). In addition, Lloyd reached base safely in each of his last eight official plate appearances of the '92 L.C.S. (four singles, walk, home run, two walks).

AGE: 50 BORN: 2/4/55 in Orange, CA
RESIDES: Cranberry Township, PA PLAYING POSITION: Outfielder
HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2005

Rusty Kuntz is in his third season as the Pirates First Base Coach, having been hired on October 24, 2002. In addition to his duties at first base, he serves the major league club as its outfield and baserunning instructor.

Prior to joining the Bucs, he spent the last two months of the 2002 regular season as a roving instructor with the Atlanta organization after spending nine years with the Florida Marlins organization.

With the Marlins, Rusty worked as the club's minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator for five seasons (1993, 1994, 1997, 1998 and 2001) and as the First Base Coach with the big-league club for four seasons (1995, 1996, 1999 and 2000).

After retiring as a player, Kuntz began his coaching career as the minor league baserunning and outfield instructor with Houston in 1987. Following two years with the Astros, he spent four seasons (1989-1992) as Seattle's First Base Coach, while also assuming the duties as the outfield and baserunning coach.

Originally selected by the White Sox in the 11th round of the 1977 June draft, Kuntz made his major league debut in 1979. He played in a total of 277 big-league games with Chicago (1979-1983), Minnesota (1983) and Detroit (1984-1985) and hit a combined .236 with five home runs and 38 RBI. Rusty was a member of the 1984 Detroit Tigers World Championship club and delivered the game-winning RBI in the fifth and deciding game of the World Series with a 7th-inning sacrifice fly.

Pete Mackanin joined Pittsburgh's major league coaching staff on October 17, 2002, and was officially named Bench Coach on October 31 of the same year. He managed Zulia to a 28-33 record in the Venezuelan Winter League this past off-season after guiding the Zulia club to a 22-40 record during the 2003 off-season.

He is in his fifth season with the Pirates organization, having managed Lynchburg in 2002 and Hickory in 2001. His Lynchburg club captured the Carolina League championship and posted the fifth-best record among all minor league teams (87-53). Mackanin was named Manager of Hickory on December 22, 2000, and guided the Crawdads to a 58-70 record in 2001.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Pete spent four seasons (1997-2000) as Montreal's Third Base Coach at the major league level. He joined the Expos as Manager with Ottawa (AAA); a position he held for two years (1995-96). While in that position, Mackanin led the Lynx to the International League Championship in 1995 and was named Minor League Manager-of-the-Year by The Sporting News.

Pete also managed two years in Baltimore's system (1993-94), two with Cincinnati at the Triple-A level (1991-92) and spent six seasons in the Cubs minor league system, five as manager and one as their minor league coordinator (1987). He captured Carolina League Co-Manager-of-the-Year honors while leading Frederick to a 78-62 record in 1993.

Mackanin has also managed in the Puerto Rican and Dominican Winter Leagues. He won the 1988 Caribbean World Series while managing Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League. In his 13 years as a minor league manager, Pete has compiled a 917-849 record.

Originally selected by the Washington Senators in the fourth round of the 1969 June draft, Pete played 16 years of pro ball, including nine seasons in the majors with Texas (1973-74), Montreal (1975-77), Philadelphia (1978-79) and Minnesota (1980-81). He compiled a .226 batting average, 30 homers and 141 RBI in 548 big-league games.

AGE: 44 BORN: 10/30/60 in Savannah, GA
RESIDES: Marietta, GA PLAYING POSITION: Infielder
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2005

Gerald Perry is in his third season as the Pirates Hitting Coach, having been named to that position on November 4, 2002. In his first year with the Bucs, the team batting average improved 23 points from .244 and a last-place finish in 2002 to a .267 mark and a third-place ranking in 2003. The Pirates average slipped to .260 and an 11th-place ranking in 2004.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Perry spent three years (2000-2002) as the Hitting Coach for the Seattle Mariners. In his first year as the hitting instructor with Seattle, the team set a club record in walks. In 2001, the Mariners led the major leagues in on-base percentage and runs scored, while pacing the American League with a .288 batting average. In his final season, Seattle ranked fourth among A.L. teams with a .275 batting average.

Originally selected by Atlanta in the 11th round of the 1978 June draft, Gerald made his major league debut with the Braves in 1983 and doubled off San Francisco's Bill Laskay in his first at bat on August 11. During his 13 big-league seasons with Atlanta (1983-1989), Kansas City (1990) and St. Louis (1991-1995), he compiled a .265 batting average, 59 home runs and 396 RBI in 1,193 games. In 1987, Perry set an Atlanta record with 42 stolen bases, the most by a full-time major league first baseman since Rod Carew swiped 49 with Minnesota in 1976 (the club record was broken by Otis Nixon, who stole 72 bases in 1991). Perry was elected to the N.L. All-Star team in 1988 (went 0-for-1) and finished his career as the Cardinals' all-time leader with 70 pinch hits.

Following his playing days, Gerald spent three seasons in the Boston organization, serving as the Hitting Coach with Michigan (Class A) in 1997, the Hitting Coach with Pawtucket (AAA) in 1998 and as the club's minor league Hitting Coordinator in 1999.

John Russell is in his third season as the club's Third Base Coach, having been hired by the Pirates on October 31, 2002. In addition to his duties as Third Base Coach, he also serves the club as its major league catching instructor. During this past off-season, John managed the Peoria Saguaros to a 17-17 record and a 2nd-place finish in the Arizona Fall League.

Russell also managed the Phoenix Desert Dogs to a 25-19 record and a 2nd-place finish in the Arizona Fall League in 2002 after spending the regular season as the manager of the Edmonton Trappers, the former Triple-A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins. His Edmonton club posted an 81-59 record and went on to win the Pacific Coast League championship. For his efforts, Russell was named Manager-of-the-Year by Baseball America. The same publication rated him as the "Best Managerial Prospect" in the P.C.L. in its "Best Tools" issue from September, 2002.

Prior to joining the Pirates coaching staff, John spent eight years as a minor league manager in the Minnesota organization, where he compiled a 527-521 record and five winning seasons. After guiding the New Britain club to an 81-58 record and a first-place finish in 1998, he was tabbed as the Eastern League's "Best Managerial Prospect" by Baseball America.

Originally selected by Philadelphia in the first round of the 1982 June draft, Russell made his major league debut with the Phillies in 1984 and collected his first hit off Pittsburgh's Larry McWilliams on 6/22/84. He played in a total of 448 big-league games with Philadelphia (1984-88), Atlanta (1989) and Texas (1990-93) and hit a combined .225 with 34 home runs and 129 RBI. Used primarily as a catcher, John was behind the plate for Nolan Ryan's sixth no-hitter on June 11, 1990.

In his career, Russell made appearances behind the plate, @first base, third base and in left field and right field. He also made one professional pitching appearance on 6/25/89, and retired the lone batter he faced (Gerald Young popped out).

visiting clubhouse manager

Kevin Conrad was named the visiting clubhouse manager in January of 1998. In that role, he is responsible for maintaining a comfortable atmosphere in the visiting baseball clubhouse at PNC Park in addition to assisting Equipment Manager Roger Wilson in day-to-day clubhouse operations.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Conrad served as an assistant in the Philadelphia Phillies visiting clubhouse for six seasons. He also serves as the visiting clubhouse manager at McKelvie Field during spring training and has assisted Wilson during the Pirates stay in Bradenton, Florida, since 1995.

The 38-year-old native of Rahway, NJ, is a graduate of Roselle (NJ) Catholic High School.

assistant equipment manager

Scott "Bones" Bonnett joined the Pittsburgh organization on February 1, 2000. In his current role, he is responsible for helping to maintain a comfortable atmosphere in the Pirates clubhouse in addition to assisting equipment manager Roger Wilson in day-to-day operations.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Scott worked as an attendant in the visiting baseball clubhouse at Cinergy Field, the previous home of the Cincinnati Reds, for nine years (1991-1999). He also served the Cincinnati organization as a batboy for three seasons (1988-1990). Scott has also assisted Wilson the past five years during the Pirates spring training stay in Bradenton, Florida.

The 34-year-old Bonnett is a native of Cincinnati, OH, and is a graduate of Lakota High School. He also attended the University of Cincinnati and is a huge Bengals fan.

kiyoshi momose assistant strength & conditioning coordinator

Kiyoshi Momose is in his first season as the Pirates Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator after working the last three years as the team's Videographer. He joined the major league staff in January of 2002, after working as the Pirates minor league assistant Conditioning Coach in 2001.

Momose will assist Frank Velasquez with the day-to-day conditioning of the Pirate players, which includes nutrition, weight training programs and daily evaluations of the athletes.

Momose was born in Nagano, Japan and is a 1991 graduate of Misuzugaoka High School in Nagano. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Nippon College of Physical Education and his master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Central Florida. In addition, he is fluent in three languages (English, Japanese and Spanish).

Kiyoshi and his wife Heather reside in Wexford, PA.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 23 times by 20 different Pittsburgh players. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. It has been accomplished just six times by a Bucco since the 1951 season and just once (Jason Kendall at Three Rivers Stadium on May 19, 2000) in the city of Pittsburgh in the last 55 years.

DID YOU KNOW... That Willie Stargell is the only left-handed batter to hit three home runs in a game for the Pirates. A total of nine different players have smacked three homers in the same game a total of 16 times while in a Pittsburgh uniform, but "Pops" is the only left-handed batter to do so. He homered three times on June 24, 1965 at Dodger Stadium, May 22, 1968 at Wrigley Field, April 10, 1971 at Atlanta Stadium and April 21, 1971 at Three Rivers Stadium against the Braves.

DID YOU KNOW... That Benito Santiago is expected to be playing for his 10th different major league team when he suits up for the Pirates this season...That figure is two shy of the major league record, held by Deacon McGuire, who played with 12 teams from 1884-1912 and Mike Morgan, who also played with 12 teams from 1978-2002.

For quality

There's more to our mission than providing access to quality healthcare. We believe in improving quality of life. Which is why we offer lifestyle improvement programs to help people live longer, healthier lives. We provide information and tools that let members evaluate healthcare options with their doctor. We offer the 24/7 support of a registered nurse through Blues on CallSM. And we operate The Highmark Caring Place, where children and their families can deal with the loss of a loved one. Because after all, quality of life is the whole point of healthcare.

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

In the four-year history of PNC Park, there has been just one inside-the-park home run. Jack Wilson accomplished the feat on July 2, 2004 vs. Milwaukee (game one), the first by a Pittsburgh player since Brian Giles hit one on May 21, 2002 @Wrigley Field in the first game of a doubleheader.

Turner Ward's against the Braves on July 2, 1998 was just the fourth pinch-hit, inside-the-park-homer in franchise history and the first since Adam Comorosky did so against the Philadelphia Phillies on July 16, 1931. With his home run on July 1, 1916, Honus Wagner remains the oldest player ever to hit an inside-the-park home run at the ripe old age of 42 years and four months.

HISTORY

HISTORY

Now in their 119th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League – the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell – plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers – Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions – Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park – which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium – their home. Described as the “Hialeah of Ballparks” when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league’s second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920’s – with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey – Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league’s Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd – who was tagged “Little Poison” – hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York’s famed “Murderer’s Row” with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball’s premier hitters during the 1930’s with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era’s best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) – which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter “Big Train” Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed “Big Poison” – batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles

Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth – thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth – but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors – as he did during the regular season – with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke its six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 4-1. While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12, 1997. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the tenth inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

HISTORY

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark became a reality when PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

During the 2001 campaign, the Pirates hired Dave Littlefield as the club's 11th general manager in the team's history. Following the 2001 season, Littlefield's acquisitions and free agent signings enabled the Pirates to be one of just six major league teams to improve by 10 games in the standings from the 2001 season.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big-league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

Although the 2004 season marked a club record 12th straight losing campaign, the Pirates produced their first-ever Rookie-of-the-Year award winner. Outfielder Jason Bay took home the honor after leading all rookies in home runs (26), RBI (82), slugging percentage (.550), total bases (226) and extra-base hits (54). Shortstop Jack Wilson became just the ninth National League shortstop to collect 200 hits in a season and he was honored with the Silver Slugger award. Oliver Perez, acquired by Littlefield along with Bay in a trade for Giles in 2003, ranked sixth among N.L. pitchers with a 2.98 ERA and electrified the home crowd every time he took the mound.

- 1900: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.
- 1910: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel. The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button. Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.
- 1920: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.
- 1930: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.
- 1937: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.
- 1939: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.
- 1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.
- 1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".
- 1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".
- 1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.
- 1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.
- 1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.
- 1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.
- 1977: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.
- 1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.
- 1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.
- 1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.
- 1991: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.
- 1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.
- 1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.
- 1997: The organization introduce a complete new look by introducing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.
- 2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).
- 2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

BOLD FACE CAPS - Living

In the 118 seasons in the National League, 1590 players have worn the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As of February 9, 2005, 681 are living.

DID YOU KNOW...THE OLDEST LIVING PIRATES ARE HOWARD (HOWDY) GROSKLOSS, WHO TURNS 98 ON APRIL 9 AND RAY BERRES, WHO TURNS 98 ON AUGUST 31. GROSKLOSS, WHO WAS BORN IN PITTSBURGH IN 1907, PLAYED THREE SEASONS FOR THE BUCS (1930-32) AND BATTED A COMBINED .261 WITH 21 RBI IN 72 GAMES. HE PLAYED SECOND BASE AND SHORTSTOP DURING HIS BRIEF CAREER. BERRES MADE HIS DEBUT WITH BROOKLYN IN 1934 AND SPENT FOUR SEASONS WITH THE PIRATES (1937-40). THE CATCHER WENT ON TO PLAY FOR THE BOSTON BRAVES AND NEW YORK GIANTS BEFORE RETIRING AFTER THE 1945 CAMPAIGN.

BILLY MEYER

1948-1952

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirate manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. Number retired in 1954.

RALPH KINER

Born Oct. 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven full seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-52), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirate career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, which ranks among the best in major league history. Number retired in 1987.

WILLIE STARGELL

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK, died April 9, 2001 in Wilmington, NC. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988). Number retired in 1982.

BILL MAZEROSKI

1956-1972

Born Sept. 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-72), the Hall-of-famer won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen "Maz" holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Number retired in 1987.

1920-35,37

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 37). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939. Number retired in 1972.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

1955-1972

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirate outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers and two doubles against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed. Number retired in 1973.

HONUS WAGNER

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted right handed. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936. Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories. Number retired in 1952.

DANNY MURTAUGH

1957-1976

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted right handed. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to four Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1960 and 1970. Number retired in 1977.

40

JACKIE ROBINSON

1947-1956

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Director of Scouting

Ed Creech was named Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting on November 20, 2001. Creech and his staff made Ball State University's right-handed pitcher Bryan Bullington the #1 overall selection in the 2002 June draft, Ed's first draft with the club.

After five consecutive years of drafting a pitcher with their first selection, Creech went local with the club's 2004 first-round pick, drafting and eventually signing 18-year-old catcher Neil Walker. Walker, who graduated from Pine-Richland High School in the northern suburbs of Pittsburgh, was the first catcher taken by the Pirates in the first round since Jason Kendall in 1992.

Creech spent three seasons (1999-2001) as an assistant to Kevin Malone, who was the Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager, before joining the Pirates in his current capacity. With Los Angeles, he was responsible for overseeing all amateur scouting and was in charge of the Dodgers strategy and selections in the annual June draft.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Creech spent the 1998 campaign as the Director of Scouting for the St. Louis Cardinals. In that role, he was responsible for selecting outfielder J.D. Drew with the fifth overall selection in the 1998 June draft. Ed was also the Scouting Director for the Montreal Expos (1994-97) and had been part of that organization since 1973, when the Expos selected him in the 2nd round of the amateur draft.

Creech played six seasons in the Montreal farm system, advancing as high as the Triple-A level. He retired as a player after the 1978 season and was out of baseball until returning as a coach with Calgary (Expos' Rookie) in 1982. Creech also managed in the minors for five years (1983-85, 1990-91) and was an area scout from 1985-1991. He served as the East Coast scouting supervisor for the Expos from 1991-93 before assuming the duties of Scouting Director in February of 1994.

Ed was born on 10/30/51 in Columbia, SC. He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Mercer University in Macon, GA. Creech resides in Moultrie, GA, with his wife Mary Ann and his children; daughter Kacey (16) and sons Matthew (11) and Nathaniel (4).

Director of Player Development

The 2005 season marks Brian Graham's 24th year in professional baseball and his fourth season as the Pirates Director of Player Development. He joined the club on December 3, 2001. As Director, Brian oversees all aspects of the Pirates Player Development system, which includes the coordination of instruction, the signing of minor league free agents, staffing, budgeting, player movement, affiliate relationships and the Latin American field operations. In addition, he installed and implemented a system of Individual Player Plans which provides instruction and resources to insure the individual development of Pirates prospects in the mental, physical and fundamental aspects of baseball.

During the 2004 season, Pirates minor league teams finished with a combined record of 354-339 (.511), posting a winning percentage for the third consecutive year. Both Altoona (AA) and Hickory (A) advanced to the Championship Series in their respective league playoffs, with Hickory capturing its second South Atlantic League title in the last three years. Pittsburgh's minor league system has now featured 12 playoff teams during the last three seasons and a record 43 players being named to Minor League post-season All-Star teams. In 2003, Pirate farm teams finished with the best winning percentage (399-288, .581) among all 30 major league organizations and Pittsburgh was the only organization to have all six minor league teams qualify for the post-season.

In 2002, the Pirates were honored as the 2002 TOPPS' Baseball "Organization of the Year." The farm teams combined to finish with a .571 winning percentage (399-300), four teams participated in the post-season and two clubs (Lynchburg and Hickory) won league championships.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Brian was a major league coach with the Cleveland Indians for two seasons (1998-1999) and with the Baltimore Orioles in 2000. Graham spent the 2001 season as the Minor League Field Coordinator and Director of Instruction for the Florida Marlins.

As a minor league manager in the Cleveland organization, Brian compiled a 704-491 (.589) record. In the eight full seasons he managed, Graham's teams finished in first place five times and second three times, reaching the post-season eight consecutive years. He was named the Carolina League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1991 and was named Minor League Manager-of-the-Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996. Brian also managed during the winter ball season for Aguilas in the Dominican Republic (1990-91) and has also coached and managed in the Arizona Fall League (1993-94).

Originally selected by Oakland in the fourth round of the 1982 June draft, the former second baseman played five seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland. He also played baseball and football at UCLA. Brian was a member of the 1978 Fiesta Bowl team and finished his collegiate career as UCLA's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. Graham was elected to UCLA's Baseball Hall-of-Fame in 1996.

Brian was born on 4/9/60 in San Diego, CA. He attended UCLA for four years, but received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Karen and three children; son Jack (12) and daughters Kelsey (10) and Kendall (3).

jeff banister

Minor League Field Coordinator

Jeff Banister is in his third season as the Pirates Minor League Field Coordinator after spending the previous four years as the Field Coordinator at the Major League level. The 2005 season marks Banister's 20th with the Pittsburgh organization.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his major league debut and only big-league appearance with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career major league batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry @Three Rivers Stadium in his only big-league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery. He has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg as a teenager in 1980.

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta (A) in 1995 and Lynchburg (A) for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. His Augusta club captured the 1995 South Atlantic League championship. Jeff replaced Marc Hill at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the Mudcats helm. In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Banister has compiled a 299-330 record (.475). He also managed in the Hawaiian Winter League in 1995-96, with his Honolulu club winning the championship. In 2004, Jeff managed Lynchburg for two weeks during a managerial change.

Jeff was born on 1/15/65 in Weatherford, OK. He is a graduate of LaMarque (TX) High School and attended the University of Houston. Banister resides in League City, TX, with his wife Karen and two children; daughter Alexandra (10) and son Jacob (3).

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

The 2005 season marks the 37th consecutive year in which the Pirates have held their spring training camp in Bradenton, Florida. That ranks fourth among major league teams in terms of consecutive years at spring training sites. Only the Detroit Tigers (60 years in Lakeland), Philadelphia Phillies (59 years in Clearwater) and Los Angeles Dodgers (57 years at Vero Beach) possess longer affiliations with their winter homes.

McKechnie Field opened in 1923 as the spring home of the St. Louis Cardinals and is named after Hall-of-Fame manager and former Bradenton resident, Bill McKechnie. The Pirates began playing their Grapefruit League games there in 1969. Just prior to its 70th birthday, the field was completely renovated in time for the 1993 spring season.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and/or no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAKS: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

NIGHT GAME: A night game shall be any game with the official starting time occurring after 5:00 p.m. All games, with official starting times fixed for 5:00 p.m., or earlier, shall be "day games."

PLAYER LIMITS: A Major League roster consists of 40 players until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 players until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- 1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
- 2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
- 3) He qualified under one of the following conditions: he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or he enters that game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces; or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

BLOWN SAVE DEFINITION: When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a blown save. If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity. This method has been a part of the Rolaids formula since 1988.

TRADING REGULATIONS: The trading deadline is July 31. Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 (midnight) without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

- 1) If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 and ending at 5 pm EDT the day after the end of the season.
- 2) If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
- 3) If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years of service: At any time during the year.
- 4) If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7 days in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

WAIVER PERIOD: Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1 until the day after the regular season concludes. NO WAIVERS are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

DISABLED LISTS:

- 15-Day: The player must remain off the active roster for a minimum of 15 calendar days, starting on the day following the player's last game.
- 60-Day: Same rules apply, however, this may only be used when the team's 40-man roster is full. Any player placed on the 60-day disabled list after August 1 may not play for the remainder of the season, including any post-season game.

EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at one time...no limit. Minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) calendar days. Players placed on this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the season. This list may only be used when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

ORGANIZATIONAL RECORDS

Pittsburgh's six minor league affiliates combined for a 354-339 record and a .511 winning percentage in 2004 - the third straight winning season in the minor leagues. Three of the six affiliates finished with a winning record and two advanced to the post-season. The Pirates produced the second-winningest minor league system in 2002 and finished the 2003 campaign with the highest winning percentage among all organizations. Here's a look at how the farm teams finished in 2004:

Club	Won	Lost	PCT.
Nashville	63	79	.444
Altoona	85	56	.603
Lynchburg	57	81	.413
Hickory	85	55	.607
Williamsport	34	40	.459
Bradenton	30	28	.517

October 19-31, 2004	The entire grass surface was laser graded and re-sodded.

HONUS WAGNER

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from one thousand dollars to one dollar and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico - where Roberto first played the game - Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates towards the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

RALPH KINER

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week.

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the lady who also designed the Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell statues.

JEWEL ON THE NORTH SHORE

Making its debut in the spring of 2001, PNC Park opened to rave reviews and offered fans, media and just about anybody entering through its gates, an awe-inspiring look at the Pittsburgh skyline and the surrounding area. A combination of Forbes Field, Wrigley Field and Camden Yards, PNC Park is considered by many as the greatest ballpark ever built. When he visited Pittsburgh in 2001 as the Chief Operating Officer of Major League Baseball, Paul Beeston proclaimed PNC Park to be "the best-looking baseball stadium he had ever seen". Following the inaugural campaign of 2001, USA Today Baseball Weekly rated PNC Park as "The Best Stadium" in its "Best in Baseball" issue. And in 2003, ESPN.com toured all 30 Major League Baseball parks and proclaimed PNC Park #1 (see box below).

Maintaining the beauty of the playing surface is a year-long process. The installation of the approximate 2.2 acres of Kentucky bluegrass began on October 30, 2000. The warning track, which consists of a ribbon of crushed red lava from Colorado, is placed atop a layer of gravel. The infield dirt is a mixture of clay, sand and peat moss. Whether you're a first-time visitor to PNC Park, or a season-ticket holder, you never know what you'll see inside the jewel on the north shore.

Lanny Frattare

Voice of the Pirates

The 2005 season marks Lanny Frattare's 30th as a radio/TV broadcaster with the Pittsburgh Pirates. No other person has brought the action to Pirate fans longer than Lanny. Hall-of-Famer Bob Prince served the club as a radio broadcaster for 28 years from 1948 through 1975.

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. He joined the Pirates behind the microphone at the major league level in 1976.

Frattare's wife, Christine, is the Director of Choral Studies and Theatrics at Upper St. Clair High School and is the Music Director of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Upper St. Clair.

Lanny has two children; son David (30) and daughter Megan (23). David currently works in the Attorney General's office of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. David and his wife, Ann Marie, are the proud parents of two children; son Spencer (2/15/02) and daughter Carly (11/5/03). Megan is currently attending the University of the Arts in Philadelphia.

greg brown

Play-by-Play Announcer

Greg Brown is in his 12th season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates, one of only seven with at least 12 years of service behind the mic for the Bucs on radio.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. Brown also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for three seasons (1991-93).

Greg's association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

In 1997, the Pennsylvania Press Broadcasters awarded Brown and his colleagues first place for radio play-by-play. The crew also received an A.I.R. Award (Achievement in Radio) from the March of Dimes for "Best play-by-play" in 2002. In the summer of 2003, Greg teamed up with Pirate players and Dick's Sporting Goods to help raise $12,000 for the "Gloves For Kids" program, which benefited Pittsburgh's B.I.G. organization.

Greg, a native of Washington, D.C., resides in Sewickley with his wife Kim and son Ryan (6).

PIRATE RADIO BROADCAST TEAMS

In 1936, KDKA-Radio hired Rosey Rowswell as the Pirates' first full-time announcer. He worked alone for awhile, then was joined by Jack Craddock and Bob Prince. The following is a chronology of the Pirate radio broadcast teams over the years. Most of the years have been with KDKA (continuous since 1955) but WWSW was also the Pirates' flagship station at one time.

Color Analyst

After spending 14 seasons in a major league uniform, Bob Walk joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of those 14 years with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big-league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. His finest moment as a Pirate came in 1992 when he notched a 7-1, complete-game victory over Atlanta in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (25), Johnny (22) and Ronny (15). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughter Makayla (2).

Color Analyst

The 2005 season marks Steve Bliss' 45th year of involvement with the Pirates, having been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

During the 2005 season, Steve will work as an analyst on radio and TV, but just during games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

A member of the 1972 National League All-Star team, Bliss won 78 games during a five-year period from 1968 thru 1972. He was a Pirates hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete-game victories in Game Three and Game Seven. On the mound for the final out in 1971, Steve went 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA in the '71 World Series (18.0ip/2er).

After retiring following the 1974 season, Bliss remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub. In 1983, he worked with the legendary Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Bliss joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

MEDIA POLICIES

WELCOME: On behalf of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, we would like to welcome you to the fifth season of baseball at PNC Park. We respectfully remind you that the policies for PNC Park, along with many other venues across the country, have changed since the events of September 11, 2001. Any violation of the following guidelines, or the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball, may result in immediate revocation of your credential and bar future access to PNC Park. If you have any questions or requests, please don't hesitate to ask our staff and we will make every attempt to accommodate you. We look forward to working with you once again throughout the 2005 season.

THE PIRATES MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the fourth floor of the team's administrative building on the corner of General Robinson Street and Federal Street. All persons wishing to visit the media relations office must sign in with the 24-hour security guard on the street level of the building.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PNC PARK: All members of the media must enter the ballpark at the "Press Tower" - the tallest of the two towers located on General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park (left-field line). YOU MUST HAVE A PHOTO ID TO GAIN ACCESS TO THE BALLPARK.

PRESS BOX/BROADCAST BOOTHS: All broadcast booths are located on the press box level. Access to the press box is available only by the "Press Tower" elevator. Only accredited members of the media and credentialed personnel will be permitted in the press box. The press box is an active working area. Cheering and loud conversation will not be tolerated at any time. The Pittsburgh Pirates prohibit any person under the age of 18 to enter the press box level on game days (unless authorized or accompanied by a representative of the Media Relations department). Anyone violating these policies will be asked to leave the premises. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in the press box unless authorized by Media Relations.

PARKING: Media parking is very limited. Daily requests will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Season parking passes will be distributed along with season credentials in March (if applicable). Those media members receiving a 2005 season parking pass will parking in the same lot as last year (LOT 7D).

INTERVIEW ROOM: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The room will be used for media conferences and other special events and interviews.

PRESS LOUNGE: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The lounge is open to credentialed members of the media and front office staff 2 hours prior to the game. The lounge will close approximately 1 hour after the start of the game. A full meal is served to all media for $7. Soft drinks and snacks will be available during games on the press level.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Pirates will supply 10 Charge Call phones in the working press box. Please let a media relations representative know if you wish to have your own dedicated phone line in the press box.

NO SMOKING: Smoking is prohibited in the press box and in the broadcast booths. Those wishing to smoke may do so on the stairwell of the "Press Tower," located outside the press box entrance.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials must include a photo of the bearer and will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering sources who will cover the Pirates every day (past coverage will also be taken into consideration). Only members of the working press will be issued credentials (this does not include freelance writers). No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials, unless clearance has been given by the Pirates. Only Pittsburgh Pirate, National League or BBWAA-issued credentials will be honored. Credentials are not transferable and should be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials, including weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to area radio and television stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and daily newspapers making last-minute changes in coverage. We ask that all daily requests be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game. All daily credentials must be picked up at the MEDIA ENTRANCE to PNC Park, located along General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park. All media must show photo identification and observe the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball before gaining access to PNC Park.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Applications for working media credentials should have been made in writing and received no later than Friday, February 25. All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors and submitted on official media outlet letterhead. Requests for daily credentials can be faxed to (412) 325-4413 or e-mailed to either member of the Media Relations staff.

ON-LINE SERVICES: Per Major League Baseball guidelines, the Pirates will not issue working credentials to any on-line service, unless they meet each of the following criteria:

1. It is part of a national news gathering agency.
2. It reaches a broad audience.
3. It produces original content.
4. It has an established record of developing original content.
5. It employs full-time journalists.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Both clubhouses are located along the Service Tunnel. The Pirates clubhouse is on the third base side and the Visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. The Pittsburgh clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. It re-opens to credentialed media within 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game (unless there is a team meeting). The manager's office may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader only for those with early deadlines. The clubhouse is closed during rain delays. It is also closed while the club is taking batting practice on the field, unless the player needed is in the clubhouse. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies. In addition, the clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media. We realize that some players are difficult to track down prior to a game, but we ask that you do not just hang out in the clubhouse. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Pirates' Media Relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

Per Major League Baseball, all visitors to the home and visiting clubhouses must sign in before entering.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and all media must stay inside the first and third base bags. Access to the field is available on the Service Level only by one of two tunnels: one leading into the visitor's dugout or one located right outside the home clubhouse, which leads to the area adjacent to the third-base bag and Pirates dugout.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Darkrooms are located along the Service Tunnel behind home plate. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV locations located around the ballpark. All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. All still photo locations should be reserved through Dave Arrigo, the Pirates' official team photographer.

RADIO & TV REPORTS: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned press-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progress. Live television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.

Prime performer.

This season, step up to the plate and enjoy our extensive meat department selections. A loaded roster with premium USDA beef, Choice or higher grades, a great selection of chicken, pork, lamb and veal, plus a delicious assortment of convenient, ready-to-cook items. It's a pitch you definitely can handle.

The official supermarket of the Pittsburgh Pirates.
